

Student Responsibilities and Expectations (as found in the MGA Student Code of Conduct)

The primary expectations of all Middle Georgia State University students are integrity and civility. Each student should approach all academic endeavors, relationships, and personal responsibilities with a strong commitment to personal integrity and interpersonal civility. These responsibilities apply collectively to members of recognized student organizations. These responsibilities include:

- x Individuals will fulfill their academic responsibilities in an honest and forthright manner.
- x Individuals will respect and foster the academic endeavors of other members of the University community.
- x Individuals will protect and support the personal safety of all members of the University community.
- x Individuals will respect other members of the University community.
- x Individuals will show regard for the property of the University, its community members, and visitors to
